Invariably in advance. Religious Notice.

Egr The Rev. S. R. Parmitz, of York, Pa., will preach in the English Lutheran Church (fare Baptist Church), East Wheeling, on to-morrow (Sunday) the 18th, at ½ past 10 A. M. and ½ past 3 P. M. BOT SIXTH OHIO CAVALRY -The two battalions of this regiment, now on Wheeling Island, arrived there on Wednesday last. The regiment was organized December 19th, 1861. The two battlions on the island were recruited in the Western Re serve. Ohio, and were organized by Col. Lloyd, of Steubenville. One battalion, now at Fort Laramie, Nebraska, was recruited by Lieut. Col. Collins, of Hillsboro, Obio. The entire regiment, twelve companies, numbers 1,140 men. The two battalions number 740 men, including officers. They will remain here only long enough to complete their equipment, and are now under marching orders.

The following is a roll of the commissioned officers of the two battalions, including field and staff:

COLONEL, WM. R. LLOYD. Major 1st battalion, Wm. Stedman; Major 24 battalion, R. B. Treat; Regiment Adjutant, R. J. Wright; Battalion Adjutant, H. H. Haskell; Regiment Quartermaster, Chas. Hunt; Battalion Quartermaster, Chas. Bost-

BOY A DANGEROUS CHARACTER, - Whilst Gen. Kelley was at Cumberland, before he was relieved by Gen. Lander, he arrested a fellow lurking around his camp, who gave his name as Chas. Temple, and claimed to be a subject of Great Britain. He had in his possession a pass, signed by Gen. Mc-Clellan, which he himself acknowledged to be forged. He was held as a spy, sent on to Charleston, Va., and there tried by a court martial, but as nothing could be proved against him he was released. It now appears that Temple is a resident of Spottsylvania County in this State. He seaved three months in the Federal army upon the breaking out of the war. When his time expired he went to Washington and put on a lieutenant's uniform, in which he made considerable of a display, until arrested for assault and battery. It was then he forged the pass upon which he succeeded in reaching Comberland, and Druggists, was arrested, tried and acquitted as afore-

Temple is now running at large, and as he is said to be a very suspicious. if not a dangerous character, it would be well for Federal officers to look out for him.

GUERBILLAS SERVED RIGHT .- The army correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writes from New Market, Virginia, that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from that point west is strongly guarded at all dangerous points by the 6th Virginia Regiment, 1,600 men, who are distributed all along to Grafton, and on the Parkersburg and Wheeling branches. He adds: Parties from these troops stationed along the railroad are sent out in all directions, m north and south of the railroad, and dangerous parties are arrested? They have not been very particular, either, about taking prisoners. When they have found genuine guerrillas, they generally dispatch them forthwith, and do not give them any further opportunity to violate coffins. It is, we believe, so extremely dangerous for these guerrillas, that they are making themselves scarce, and the country is now almost entirely clear of them for forty or fifty miles on each side of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

SEIZURE OF CONTRABAND BOOKS .-For several days past, the Rev. Sabin Hough, has been peddling a treasonable book about the city called Pulpit Politics. The other day a lot of these books arrived at the Express office and were seized as Contraband by the Provost Marshall. This Hough, it will be remembered was arrested in Cincinnati several months agolfor uttering and publishing seditious language,-He published a paper at that time which was seized and suspended. At the trial of the Rev. gentlemen, a letter was found among his papers from Judge Thompson of this city written something after the style of the "catagory of the Infinite."

Major Darr yesterday gave Hough his books upon condition that he would go out of the State with his treasonable trash and stay out of it.

De CIRCUIT COURT .- The Court was engaged yesterday in the consideration of a case of unlawful detainer-John Ferrell vs. Robert McCullock, verdict for Plaintiff .-The case of the Commonwealth vs. Nathan Colnet is set for to day.

AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT .- ISSRC ee and his two sons, committed an outrageous assault upon Sol. Butler and his wife, on Tuesday, at the tavern called the Great Western, on the National Road, near. St. Clairsville. Butler is the landlord of the Great Western, which is the property of Lee. Lee, having leased the property to a citizen of Pennsylvania, wished to get rid of Butler, and failing in every other way, undertook to whip him out. He and his two sons fell upon Butler and his wife, with clubs and stones, and beat them in a terrible manner The matter is being judicially investigated, and it would be well enough for the public to suspend judgment until both sides are heard.

The above named prisoners were men bers of the Virginia militia, in the rebel service, and were captured by Gen. Cox, who sent them to this city.

A BROOKE COUNTY PRISONER .- Henry Donavan, a young man who left his residence in Brooke county some months ago with the avowed intention of going to the rebel army returned home some time since. He was arrested the other day by order of the Provost Marshall, and was brought down to this city yesterday, and confined in the Athaeneum. When he left home he had but a few dollars, but when he returned he had a fine horse and a considerable sum of money.

BOT To CLERKS .- (Confidential) -- Young an, would you like to have your salary doubled? Well, sir, it is the easiest thing in the world to have that done. At present you are employed (and paid accordingly) only in the lower departments of clerks' labor, but just go a few weeks to Mr. H.'s "Business School," and pass through his mill, and your capacity for a higher order of service will be so much improved that you can command twice the salary you can now. Caution-Don't too many of you rush in at once.

THIS justly celebrated Machine is now generally known and recognized as the le at and most perfect Mower in use. Each year's experience adds to its high reputation and proves its superiority over all others. It combines many advantages not found in other machines. It has two driving wheels, which act together or independently; it also has a double hinged folding cutter bar which makes it especially adapted to cutting on hilly and uneven surfaces, allowing it to pass freely over stone or other obstructions, also allowing the bar to fold across the frame without removing a single bolt or nut. The machine can thus be transported ready for instant use from field to field or farm to farm as readily as a common cart. The finger bar is made of steel, the guard fingers are peculiar to this nower and are secured by patent. They are made of wrought from and laid with steel; the importance of this feature will be readily recognized by those who have been annoyed by the cost and trouble of the cast fingers used on other machines. Again, while presenting a perfect mower we also firmlas when desired an independent reap ng attachment, thus giving the purchaser the advantage of a single or complised machine. peared this morning.
